

We would like to see the FCC continue to uphold our rights not to receive unwanted calls from the banks and institutions for advertising purposes. We have a right to privacy and do not wish to have our information shared with others without our written permission.